Sally Anderson is one of Australasia's foremost thinkers in Sustainable Transformation. She is the Founder of Freefall International Limited which caters for disseminating the unique education Sally has personally developed over 20 years by way of Freefall Seminars & Freefall Coach Training.

Sally is passionate about the advancement of human performance and is pioneering new ways of being in human consciousness. What makes Sally peerless is that she has been a C-level executive and entrepreneur herself, plus having established one of the most effective, results-driven and comprehensive coaching programs in the country.

Sharing Sally's incredible presence, life-experience and story of thriving against the odds is enough to inspire anyone to raise their game... and that's before she has even started coaching. Her testimonials repeatedly signal breakthroughs on every level: financial, confidence, relationship, career, and fulfillment within a surprisingly rapid time. She is a peerless educator, with a deep intuition, profound understanding of human behaviour and unique ability to compassionately shift people's behaviours and thoughts within a heart-beat. If you are looking for unreasonable levels of success in an unrealistic period of time, do not even think about going any further, until you have talked to Sally.
